

Leave the list as is or make it even tougher. Govern for the people instead of special interest groups for once. The people have spoken and our lives are better. Don't undo a good that has been done.